Program Summary

Elected in 2008 and re-elected in 2012, Commissioner Shiprack is term limited in December 2016. It is her priority to continue promoting evidence-driven programs and services, honor ethnic and cultural diversity, and engage in community-driven policy as well as creating clear and consistent succession documentation for the future leadership of District 3.

Multnomah County is changing. A recovering economy has meant prosperity and abundance for some. But for a growing population served by county programs, simply meeting basic needs remains difficult. Homelessness is growing, poverty and a lack of opportunity remain, especially for communities of color, and in specific neighborhoods and areas. County safety net services are critical to ensure basic needs; taking care of these needs is a priority which is why Commissioner Shiprack will emphasize support for programs addressing homelessness, elder abuse and over-reliance on jailing people with mental health issues. Her multi-year priority project, the new Central Courthouse, continues to gain momentum with design planning and, by December 2016, ground breaking. Commissioner Shiprack's office has coordinated a Pay for Success feasibility study, with assistance through the Corporation for National and Community Service. The study will examine whether a project to improve outcomes for justice-involved juveniles could be established using the innovative Pay for Success procurement and financing structure.

Commissioner Shiprack continues to Co-Chair the Local Public Safety Coordinating Council (LPSCC). LPSCC focus areas include reducing justice system racial disparities, decreasing the system's use as a default mental health institution, preventing youth and gang violence, and sharing information and data across jurisdictions. Commissioner Shiprack is liaison to Elders in Action and is working on the county's Age Friendly Action Plan, part of the World Health Organization's Global Network of Age-friendly Cities and Communities initiative. She is liaison to the Regional Arts and Culture Council (RACC), where she serves on the governing committee of the Right Brain Initiative. She also represents the county on the Advisory Council of the Gateway Center for Domestic Violence Services.
