Program Description

Commissioner Stegmann's office focuses on place-based anti-poverty strategies and efforts to increase economic mobility without displacement. This vision guides involvement in conversation about East County growth and continued investment. The core value of this is to mitigate the impacts of poverty and negative systemic interactions for all residents of East Multnomah County.

Specific policy areas for Commissioner Stegmann's office include: increasing housing stability and affordability, improved access to health and human services, reducing disparities for communities of color and residents involved in the justice system, and effective, ongoing conversations with East County communities about coordination of future growth strategies.

Commissioner Stegmann is chair of the East Multnomah County Transportation Committee, co-chair of the jail population subcommittee of the Local Public Safety Coordinating Council, and represents Multnomah County through leadership with Greater Portland, Inc., East Metro Economic Alliance, Visitor's Development Fund, the Library Advisory Board, the Commission on Economic Dignity and the Urban Flood Safety and Water Quality District.

She continues her leadership on the National Association of Counties cohorts for Resilient Communities, and Racial Equity examining best practices and policies to address inequities in counties across the United States and bringing those efforts home to East Multnomah County. Commissioner Stegmann is committed to implementing the Equity and Empowerment Lens in all policy discussions and decisions that may disproportionately impact communities who are underrepresented in those discussions.
