Executive Summary

Under the direction of the County's Chief Operating Officer, the Complaints Investigation Unit will investigate discrimination and harassment complaints based on a protected class made by County employees. The creation of a centralized unit will end departmental management of those investigations and allow for countywide coordination and tracking of the investigations and themes. The unit's creation is one of the recommendations made by the Jemott Rollins Group to support the success of Multnomah County's Workforce Equity Strategic Plan.

Program Summary

The unit employs experienced investigators that have multicultural competency, are knowledgeable in trauma-informed care, and practice conflict resolution skills. The investigators will view complaints, processes, and proposed actions through the Diversity Equity Inclusion Framework adopted by the County. The unit will also meet with department and County leadership on a regular basis to discuss investigations and themes.

In addition to conducting investigations, the Complaints Investigation Unit will:

- Create standardized investigation procedures to help employees have the same experience throughout the organization.
- Work closely with Departmental HR, Office of Diversity and Equity and Organizational Learning to find appropriate ways to resolve complaints that may not require a full investigation and ensure proper corrective action is taken.
- Train HR staff and managers on best practices for conducting non-protected class investigations that departments are responsible for.
- Track protected class complaints and report key themes to County leadership.
