WORKSHOP OBJECTIVES

In this workshop, you will become familiar with:

- The underlying philosophy and values of popular education
- Key popular education methods, such as brainstorming, sociodramas (social skits), cooperative learning, role plays, and dinámicas (educational games)
- How to move through the cycle of praxis (from action to reflection to action) in the course of a class
- How participants can apply what they are learning to their day-to-day work
- The history of popular education and how it grew out of the lived experience of people working for social change.
