Program Summary

As the pandemic continues to impact every activity at the County we continue to evolve our work to meet new and old demands with creativity, innovation and lots of elbow grease. The uncertainty of the future is our new normal, and planning for the roller coaster of coronavirus variants and changing public health needs means that we need to look to the FY23 budget with that knowledge, and be prepared for other waves of public health needs along with all of the ongoing programs and services that the county implements. The objective is not to return to what seemed normal, but rather to rethink our systems in ways that will move us toward equity and justice.

Commissioner Jayapal continues to focus on houselessness and affordable housing, public safety, youth employment and workforce development, and environmental justice. During the 2022 budget process, she will prioritize programs and strategies that address racial inequities, focus on proven prevention, protect our most vulnerable residents, and deliver results. Recognizing that we cannot achieve equity for the community we serve if our own employees do not experience equity and belonging in their workplace, the Commissioner is committed to monitoring and supporting the progress of the Workforce Equity Strategic Plan.

Commissioner Jayapal chairs the Multnomah Sex Trafficking Collaborative and co-chairs The Gateway Center for Domestic Violence Council as well as the Domestic Violence Fatality Review Committee. She is the liaison to the Regional Arts and Culture Council (RACC), the Metro Advisory Policy Committee (MPAC), the Workforce Development Board (Worksystems), Walnut Park Redevelopment Project, and Multnomah County's Audit Committee. She is also a member of the Metro Supportive Housing Services Measure Oversight Committee. In 2020 she chaired the Joint Task Force on Supporting Business in Reducing Diesel Emissions.
