

Background

In 2021 the Oregon Legislature passed Senate Bill 710. This bill changed how restraints and involuntary seclusion can be used in licensed Child Caring Agencies, like the Multnomah County's Juvenile Services Division A&E Program.

All youth served in a licensed Child Caring Agency must receive information about this bill. What you need to know about restraints and seclusions:

- Restraint means holding a child in a way that does not allow them to move.
- Seclusion means a child is locked in an area or room and is not allowed to leave.
