Executive Summary

Domestic violence is a complex issue, with both individual and community-level effects. Experiencing racism or other forms of oppression intensifies the trauma of domestic and sexual violence. Culturally-specific services address this critical intersection through relationship-based advocacy and support. Trusted community-based providers administer these programs. They provide high-quality, holistic services to survivors and their families.

Program Description

ISSUE: The experience of domestic and sexual violence can differ depending on the community. Cultural considerations are an important factor in effective service delivery. Survivors report an increased level of comfort when they are able to access services from within their own community.

PROGRAM GOAL: To prevent and address domestic violence in under-served communities by providing access to high-quality, relationship-based advocacy services.

PROGRAM ACTIVITY: This program funds domestic violence services for the following populations: African American, Latinx, Native American, immigrants and refugees, LGBTQ, older adults and people with disabilities. Culturally-specific services are reflective of the needs and values of survivors from these communities. Survivors can access safety planning, advocacy, case management, and help navigating systems. Programs offer support accessing housing, legal support, and financial assistance. Programs also connect survivors with natural support networks in their community. This supports long-term healing and healthy relationships.
