Executive Summary

The Nutrition Program provides meals to older adults, people with disabilities, and Veterans who may be at nutritional risk. Nutrition services increase health and reduce social isolation. The program uses culturally responsive and culturally specific services. These services help maintain participants’ independence and improve their quality of life. A network of community partners provides nutrition education and nutritious meals.

Program Description

ISSUE: Participants from diverse communities report they need more affordable food and access to culturally specific meals.

PROGRAM GOAL: The Nutrition Program provides meals to older adults, people with disabilities, and Veterans who may be at nutritional risk. Access to good nutrition helps to support better health and results in consumers’ ability to remain independent in their own home. A nutrition risk assessment measures this risk. This program gives access to healthy meals. Healthy meals prevent disease, improve nutritional status, and reduce social isolation. The program also links people to community-based services.

PROGRAM ACTIVITY: ADVSD provides funding to community partners to provide nutrition education and nutritious meals. Meals are both home-delivered and available at dining sites. These meals meet the tastes of diverse participants. The program serves people with the greatest social and economic needs. Nutrition services pay special attention to isolated, low-income, minority, and limited English participants. In FY 2022, 42% of participants identified as Black, Indigenous, and/or People of Color (BIPOC). Providers are culturally responsive to the priorities and challenges facing diverse communities. The COVID-19 pandemic closed in-person meal sites and partners have moved to home-delivered meals. ADVSD increased funding to culturally specific providers serving communities harder hit by COVID-19. Culturally specific providers maximize funds and community impact by using culturally specific restaurants and stores when possible. This increases the economic well-being of the communities where the elders live. ADVSD uses a dietitian to review menus and follow nutrition guidelines.
