

After the resolved portion, add this language:

A draft project plan will be brought to the Multnomah County Commission by August 15th for deflection, treatment, and recovery services, which outlines timelines, deliverables, policies, standard operating procedures, requirements for those being deflected, goals and reporting, as well as the direct line of accountability for the work to implement and operate our deflection program.