Executive Summary

The District Attorney's Information Technology Unit provides rapid and economical computer desktop support, as well as all computer software, servers, peripherals and network support. The 7-person unit is responsible for the operation and maintenance of the DA's document management system, Alfresco, and the DA's principal case tracking systems, CRIMES Juvenile and CRIMES Adult; in addition, the unit collects and prepares the Office's statistical data for public consumption. The unit also maintains a Helpdesk for the 250-plus members of the DA's office, fielding 4,453 calls last year.

Program Summary

The IT Unit is primarily responsible for the acquisition, deployment, maintenance, monitoring, development, upgrade and support of all DA IT systems, including servers. This entails approximately 321 PC's, 46 laptops and 80 tablets, plus operating systems hardware, software and peripherals. This includes, but is not limited to: case tracking systems for adult and juvenile components; document management and imaging systems; web services for intranet and internet publishing, database administration, data exchanges with external law enforcement and other public safety agencies, report generation, file and print services, email services, mobile access and mobile device services, email spam filtering, document repository services and desktop support services. In addition, the unit oversees data storage, retention, backup and restoration. Additionally, this current fiscal year has seen the start of preparations by IT for the replacement of the CRIMES case tracking systems (ca.2002) with newer technology, with completion anticipated for December 2017.

This program allows the District Attorney to fulfill a legal responsibility under Oregon state law to maintain a register of official business, in which the District Attorney makes a note of every action, suit or proceeding commenced or defended by the District Attorney in official capacity, and the proceedings, therein.

The program's Help Desk is staffed 7:30AM to 5:00pm, Monday through Friday, and 9:00AM to 5:00PM on Saturdays and Sundays.
