Program Characteristics: In Target

Executive Summary

Prosecutors must be leaders in ensuring that convictions are the result of fair and transparent processes consistent with the pursuit of justice. MCDA’s Justice Integrity Unit reviews and, when necessary and appropriate, seeks to overturn convictions when there is evidence of actual innocence, prosecutor or law enforcement misconduct, or other considerations that undermine the integrity of the conviction. The criminal legal system has disproportionately impacted communities of color. This unit works closely with defense attorneys and community groups to identify appropriate cases for this unit to consider. This program was developed coordination with national technical assistance provider Fair and Just Prosecution, who supplied MCDA with best practices and materials from well established-JIUs around the country.

Program Description

More than 45 jurisdictions across the country have established Justice Integrity Units (JIUs) as a mechanism for scrutinizing past cases. MCDA’s JIU addresses all issues that arise after conviction and sentencing including, but not limited to, post conviction relief (PCR) hearings, motions to set aside convictions (expungements), Psychiatric Security Review Board (PSRB) Hearings, Parole Board Hearings, and reviewing clemency petitions. The JIU investigates claims of actual innocence, and instances where prosecutorial or law enforcement misconduct is alleged that is uncovered post-conviction. The JIU maintains and updates policies, protocols, and materials related to: discovery obligations; eyewitness identification; recorded police interviews; ethics and professionalism; confidential informants; forensic evidence retention; proffers and cooperation agreements; and homicide file closing protocols.

Even as MCDA moves forward with better practices, building public trust in the criminal justice system requires addressing the past harm that has been perpetrated by the criminal legal system. MCDA acknowledges that harm has fallen disparately on communities of color. Therefore, the intention and expectation of the JIU is that MCDA will address disparity in the criminal legal system. JIU tracks the demographic information related to cases that it works on in order to measure that impact, and to ensure that this unit does not increase disparities that already exist.

MCDA works to expeditiously advance eligible applicants' motions to have their criminal records expunged. This allows people who have exited the criminal justice system without incident for several years to avoid numerous collateral consequences that flow from having a criminal record. MCDA has modified its policies to reduce the number of defendants who would be denied expungement based on an inability to pay fines and fees in other matters. The result is equitable social outcomes for populations that are over-represented in the criminal justice system, and thus inequitably disadvantaged by it.
