This high volume unit prosecutes more than 1,400 domestic violence cases annually, including under-served populations.

Program Summary

The Domestic Violence unit prosecutes all types of family or intimate partner violence including assaults, sex crimes, and homicides. Last year the unit screened and prosecuted 1,253 domestic violence cases including 547 misdemeanors, 364 felonies, and 342 restraining order violations. The crimes include all level of assault, sexual assault, kidnapping, harassment, and homicides. The unit works with our Victim Assistance program to assign an advocate to each case to provide outreach and access to support services for all victims of domestic violence and their families.

The unit works in collaboration with state and local law enforcement, the Multnomah County Department of Community Justice and a variety of local nonprofit domestic violence organizations and shelters. For example, the unit works closely with the Portland Police Bureau Domestic Violence Reduction Unit (DVRU) and the Domestic Violence Emergency Response Team (DVERT). The Senior Deputy of this unit is an Executive Committee member for the Family Violence Coordination Council and, the Domestic Violence Fatality Review, the DV court workgroup and is the Co-Chair of the local Chapter of Justice Jammers, a work group that meets to identify gaps in the justice system affecting domestic violence victim's safety and offender accountability.

The Domestic Violence Unit participates in the Deferred Sentencing program for eligible offenders. This program allows first time offenders an opportunity to earn a dismissal of the charge upon successful completion of a highly supervised and closely monitored program of batterer's intervention strategies and counseling. The Domestic Violence unit works with the county's Adult Protective Services agency to provide a specialized emphasis on the prosecution of elder abuse cases within Multnomah County. This unit acts as a resource for training of community partners, state and local law enforcement agencies. The unit dedicates a full time attorney to mental health court and civil commitments for the county.
