Executive Summary

This program holds offenders accountable by providing prosecution services for misdemeanor crimes. Intake attorneys review and issue charging documents on misdemeanor cases and directly respond to a variety of inquiries from members of the public regarding criminal law issues, and the criminal process in Multnomah County.

Program Summary

This program works collaboratively with the State courts and local law enforcement agencies to prosecute all misdemeanor crimes except those involving domestic violence. The attorneys assigned to Intake screen, issue or reject for prosecution misdemeanor offenses such as driving under the influence of intoxicants (DUI), resisting arrest, assault, sex abuse, theft, prostitution, stalking, trespass, strangulation and disorderly conduct. Intake attorneys also handle court appearances at the Justice Center including arraignments, DUI Diversion entries, Community Court and early resolution cases.

Cases involving non-violent offenders can also now be referred to the Community Courts located in downtown Portland and Gresham. These courts not only issue sanctions against offenders but also provide access to needed social services such as alcohol treatment, drug treatment and mental health services. With thousands of cases processed each year, the Community Courts offer a cost-effective collaboration between the state courts, prosecution and social service providers.

Attorneys assigned to the Misdemeanor Trial Unit prepare cases for trial and represent the State of Oregon in misdemeanor jury and bench trials. These attorneys also appear in court on other matters including pleas, sentencing's, probation violation hearings, and restitution hearings. Attorneys in the trial unit work collaboratively with the Neighborhood DA program by prosecuting their issued cases. Most non-violent offenders qualify for "Community Court" where they can earn a reduction or dismissal of their charges by giving back to local neighborhoods through community service while getting connected with needed social service programs. Offenders who decline or are ineligible for "Community Court" are prosecuted by the attorneys in the Misdemeanor Trial Unit. Because of the large volume of cases and the continued expansion of East County, prosecutors present cases to courts located in downtown Portland and also in Gresham.
