Executive Summary

Unit A/B prosecutes property crimes, including wage theft, auto theft, organized retail theft, and commercial drug delivery cases. The Human Trafficking Unit protects survivors of human trafficking many of whom are minors, using a trauma-informed, victim-centered approach. BIPOC community members are disproportionately impacted by human trafficking. Deputy District Attorneys seeks to establish safety and trust with trafficking survivors.

Program Description

This program offer is a restoration request for 1.0 DDA 2 position. Unit A/B prosecutes property crimes, including wage theft, auto theft, organized retail theft, and commercial drug delivery cases. The Human Trafficking Unit protects survivors of human trafficking many of whom are minors, using a trauma-informed, victim-centered approach. BIPOC community members are disproportionately impacted by human trafficking. Deputy District Attorneys seeks to establish safety and trust with trafficking survivors. Reduction in these DDAs will increase caseloads for remaining DDAs to levels that are not manageable and will exacerbate challenges to retain prosecutors. Impacts such as delays in prosecutions and less attention to each case further harms victims and do not benefit most defendants either.
