Just for Today

Just for today contains many of the principles of twelve step recovery
programs and has become a cornerstone of DDA.
Just for today not only reminds us to keep our focus on today, it also shows us how.
Just for today is read at the end of every DDA meeting.

Just for Today...in DDA

- Just for today I will focus on my DDA recovery program of the 12 Steps Plus 5.
- Just for today I will remain clean and sober and if I am taking medication I will do so as prescribed.
- Just for today I will keep an Open mind and be Willing to listen to the advice of my DDA support group, my prescriber, and my clinician.
- Just for today I will allow myself to have faith in someone in the DDA program who has faith in me and my recovery.
- Just for today I will have a program.
 I recognize that I may make mistakes along the way, but I will follow the DDA program to the best of my ability.

- Just for today I will utilize the DDA program of shared experiences, strength, solidarity and hope in order to gain a better perspective on my life.
- Just for today I will not dwell on the past nor place undue concern on the future.
- Just for today I will not grant fear or worry space in my thoughts.
 By choosing to live 'One Day at A Time' and by following the principles of DDA I need not be afraid.
- Just for today I will see How working an Honest program is helping others and allow the blessings of my Higher Power to flow throughout my life.

- Just for today I will allow myself to be me. I will accept myself for whom and where I am. I will allow others the same courtesy, that they may be free to grow, and that I may be freed from the burden of resentment.
- Just for today I will 'Live and Let Live.' If I become unable to do this, then I will place trust in my Higher Power and remind myself to just 'Let Go and Let God.'
- Just for today I will live 'Life On Life's Terms.' And by doing so I will recognize when I need support for symptoms of my dual diagnosis or when I am in danger of relapse
 and I will seek help from the fellowship of DDA, my Higher Power, my prescriber and my clinician.
