Funding Conditions for Construction Projects

CDBG & HOME funds cannot be committed to construction projects until they meet certain criteria to ensure that the project is feasible and can adhere to the requirements triggered by the project.

- Last-in Funding
- Final Budgets & Pro Forma
- Market Assessment
- Acceptable Timeline
- Underwriting & Subsidy Layering

Monitoring & Reporting

Monitoring

- All projects will be monitored according to HUD regulations.
- HOME projects are monitored on a HUD-established schedule.
- CDBG monitoring targets specific programs and activities each year.

Performance Measures

- All Federal programs are required to report on outputs and outcomes.
- Subrecipients are required to submit a performance measurement report quarterly.

HOME Affordability Periods

Long Term Affordability

- Many HOME funded activities require an affordability period.
- Affordability periods range from 5 to 20 years depending on the project funded and the amount of funding provided.
- The City may impose a longer affordability period at its discretion.
- Rent Assistance and Services do not trigger an affordability period.
