Ballots for January 26 special election to be mailed today

The U.S. Postal Service will begin processing ballots to be mailed in Multnomah County for the January 26 special election—approximately 410,000 of them.

Registered voters should receive their ballots by January 14. Voters who have not gotten their ballots by then should call the Multnomah County Elections Division at (503) 988-3720.

Voters can mail their voted ballot back for one first class stamp or drop off their ballots at any official drop site until 8:00 p.m. on the day of the election.

Visit www.mcelections.org for more information about the January 26 special election or voting in general.
