Executive Summary

This offer provides culturally-specific and targeted services to underserved populations who are experiencing domestic violence. Services include risk assessment and safety planning, advocacy, intensive and confidential support, case management, and assistance accessing broader community resources.

Program Summary

Access to culturally specific and targeted services increases the efficacy of domestic violence services. Services that are developed and delivered by specific communities are more accessible to and better match the needs and values of the survivors they are intended to serve.

This program provides specialized, population-specific domestic and sexual violence services, including trauma-informed care, ongoing risk assessment, safety planning, intensive support, advocacy, case management, and help accessing other community resources. Services include: assistance with legal issues, access to government benefits, housing, financial education, assistance accessing benefits, access to mental and physical healthcare services, employment, immigration and disability services. Targeted populations include: African American, Latino, Native American, Slavic/Russian immigrants, African immigrants, LGBTQ, seniors and people with disabilities.
