

CRIMINAL JUSTICE FLOW: OFFENDER HOUSING ISSUES

Notes:

*Estimates from a 14-month sample of offender Needs Assessments (2003-2004). Multnomah County Department of Community Justice.

 Reflects only offenders identified as Medium or High risk to re-offend (low and limited risk not included); 'Needs' refers to offenders that have identified medium or high need factors (3 or more factors) in the specific area (i.e., Housing Needs, Alcohol and Drug Needs, and/ or Mental Illness Needs).

Baldry, E., McDonnell, D., Maplestone, P., & Peeters, M. (2003). Ex-prisoners and accommodations: What bearing do different forms of housing have on social reintegration? Australian Housing and Urban Research Institute. 'Unstable housing' was defined as moving two or more times within a 9-month period post-release.

* State of Oregon DOC recidivism definition; New adult felony conviction within 3 years post-release. Results for Multnomah County as of 1st half of FY2005.

 Results based on ADAM (2003) data for Portland; unstable housing within the last 30 days. The jail's average daily population in CY2003 was 1645.