Executive Summary

The Joint Office of Homeless Services (JOHS) prioritizes addressing the intersection of homelessness and domestic and sexual violence. The JOHS also holds achieving racial equity as a core goal, and eliminating disparate rates of homelessness on the basis of race and ethnicity must be a focus of all programming. Many survivors must leave their home to be safe, while others face eviction due to problems caused by an abusive partner's behavior. Rapid rehousing is a nationally recognized best practice to address homelessness for individuals fleeing domestic violence who are in need of financial assistance and support. This program offer funds housing and support services to more than 600 individuals, the significant majority of whom will identify as Black, Indigenous, and People of Color (BIPOC).

Program Summary

Rapid rehousing programs funded by this program offer provide culturally responsive and culturally specific advocacy support and financial assistance rooted in racial equity to help survivors and their children quickly establish safe, permanent housing after fleeing domestic violence (DV). Providers assist survivors with safety planning, reducing barriers to employment and safe housing, identifying housing options, advocating with landlords, providing flexible financial assistance for housing placement and retention, and connecting survivors to community resources. This program offer supports:

- Rapid rehousing housing placements and support services, including advocacy, case management, client assistance, rent assistance and safety planning, and housing retention through the provision of vocational, educational and financial management training.
- DV Housing Advocacy at culturally specific DV programs, providing rapid rehousing services, as well as eviction prevention for survivors who can safely remain in their homes.
- Shared housing for survivors and their children through democratically run homes. Funding assists with move-in costs, rent assistance, and short-term needs, and participants have access to case management, economic empowerment services and advocacy support.
- Mobile DV Community Advocacy at nontraditional DV services settings, connecting survivors in need of DV specific services with safety planning, barrier removal, flexible client assistance, and referrals to DV housing programs and community resources.
- Shelter to Stabilization Advocacy co-located at DV emergency shelters, to assist survivors with barrier removal, client assistance, and referrals to housing programs and community resources.
