Executive Summary

The Joint Office of Homeless Services (JOHS) prioritizes addressing the intersection of homelessness and domestic and sexual violence. With Metro Supportive Housing Services funding, dedicated to reducing homelessness through strategies that lead with racial equity, this program offers funds services essential to achieving stable, long-term housing outcomes for domestic and sexual violence survivors by providing housing navigation, housing placement, retention and assertive engagement services.

Program Summary

The Multnomah County Local Implementation Plan (LIP) for the Metro Measure sets out a range of strategies to reduce homelessness by increasing permanent housing and wrap around services for those experiencing, or at risk of, chronic homelessness and episodic homelessness. In alignment with priorities outlined in the LIP, this program offer funds case management and supportive services for survivors of DV/SA and their children/dependents. Services include safety planning, identifying safe housing, landlord advocacy, placement and retention, flexible financial assistance, and connecting survivors to community resources. More specifically, this program offer supports:

- Navigation services to support the rapid transition of people prioritized through DSV Coordinated Access to available shelter and housing resources.
- Partner agency staffing to support non-DV Family System partners and households in Family Shelters needing to be connected with DV resources.
- Partner agency staffing to provide housing placement and retention services for 90 domestic and sexual violence households. Participants will access safe, stable, and affordable housing, subsidized by leveraged Federal vouchers.
- Rental assistance and supportive services to ensure housing retention for 30 households over a 2-5 year period.
- Match support for $800,000 HUD DV Transitional Housing - Rapid Rehousing Bonus project serving 29 households or 58 individuals annually with case management and support services

This program offer provides culturally-responsive and culturally-specific advocacy and support, and financial assistance rooted in racial equity, to help survivors and their children quickly establish safe, permanent housing after fleeing domestic violence.
