

Immigration and International Issues in Juvenile Cases

March 4, March 11, & April 4, 2014

12:00 -1:30 p.m.

Large Conference Room, Multnomah County Juvenile Justice Center
1401 NE 68th Street, Portland, OR 97213

This series of brown bag trainings is open to all professionals involved in the child welfare and juvenile justice systems (including, but not limited to, judicial officers, attorneys, DHS, CASA, OYA and Juvenile Department staff). Sponsored by the Child Welfare Council and Juvenile Justice Council Immigration Issues Committee. For more information, contact Christa.OE@youthrightsjustice.org or Jordan.B@youthrightsjustice.org.

March 4th and 11th: Immigration Law

Anna Ciesielski, Oregon Immigration Group; Denisse Guadarrama and Paula Padilla, Immigration Counseling Service

- March 4: Immigration Remedies, including: (1) Special Immigrant Juvenile Status (SIJS); (2) U nonimmigrant status for victims of crimes; (3) T nonimmigrant status for victims of Human Trafficking; (4) Violence Against Women Act (VAWA); and (5) Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA).
- March 11: (1) continuation of Remedies; (2) discussion of immigration consequences of criminal activities.

April 4th: International Issues and Oregon Child Welfare

Angelica Quintero, DHS International Case Consultant

- Consular Notification
- Types of Placements
- International Reunification
- International Adoptions
- Refugees
- Special Immigrant Juvenile Status (SIJS)