Executive Summary

Intake, Assessment, Intervention and Adjudication (IAIA) carries an average daily caseload of 180 children (under 12) and youth (12-18). Youth who are at imminent risk of becoming chronic juvenile offenders are identified; supervision and services are provided to 300 juvenile offenders annually.

Program Summary

IAIA conducts daily intakes, responds to victim and public inquiries, and administers delinquency risk assessments. IAIA reviews law enforcement reports and facilitates documentation and communication with the District Attorney's Office for charging decisions, provides valuable information and referral services to the public, and facilitates victim services as mandated by Oregon Victims' Rights Law. The District Attorney's Office relies on IAIA to review police reports of divertible misdemeanor and felony cases. Judges rely heavily on IAIA to provide critical information and technical support for daily court docketing and proceedings.

IAIA staff monitor the daily court docket, assist the Juvenile Court with deliquency matters, set court proceedings in motion, and collaborate with Deputy District Attorneys, defense attorneys, State Court Clerk's Office, and Judicial Officers concerning matters of law and court processes including preparation of court reports and recommendations. IAIA staff represent the Juvenile Services Division during these court proceedings.

IAIA administers standardized, comprehensive delinquency risk assessments to identify children and youth who are at the highest risk to reoffend. Children age 13 and under who commit serious acts such as arson and felony assault are assessed and referred to specialized services. Medium risk youth age 12 and older are assessed and held accountable via contracts such as Formal Accountability Agreements (FAA), instead of formal probation. FAA conditions include community service, restitution, and treatment services. IAIA youth who do not comply with agreements or who continue to demonstrate unsafe, illegal behavior can be taken to court and placed on formal probation.

This program offer also provides additional restorative justice principles within school settings. Youth learn how to effectively navigate peer and teacher relationships and resolve conflicts that often lead to suspensions and/or expulsions. These preventative principles contribute to keeping kids engaged in school and away from the slippery slope that leads to the formal justice system.

Significant Program Changes

Last Year this program was: 50019 Juvenile Intake, Assessment, Intervention &

This program offers reflects the decrease of 2.00 FTE Office Assistant Sr that transferred to another DCJ program in FY 2014 as part of the reorganization to support staff in the Juvenile Services Division (refer # 50051-15). This program offer also reflects a decrease in funding from Portland Public Schools of $60k. This reduction is due to the restoration of the 50/50 cost split of 2.00 FTE from the 75/25 split over the last few years.
