Program Summary

Commissioner Shiprack works with the community to create a county budget that is equitable, transparent, and responsible. She will continue to provide leadership and engage the community to create county services that honor ethnic and cultural diversity and recognize the complexity of community need. Promoting evidence-based programs and services are a high priority.

Replacement of the Multnomah County Central Courthouse building is moving forward. District 3 will continue to work with stakeholders to provide energy, leadership and momentum to this critical project. By the end of the calendar year, the Board of Commissioners will decide on a site and financing method to deliver the new courthouse with a target of breaking ground in 2016. Serving as Co-Chair of the Local Public Safety Coordinating Council (LPSCC), Commissioner Shiprack continues to work with this nationally recognized collaborative group to deliver a just and efficient public safety system. Current focal issues for LPSCC include jail population management, juvenile justice, mental health/public safety alignment and service improvements, youth and gang violence prevention, and information-sharing across jurisdictions. Commissioner Shiprack promotes elder issues by serving as liaison to Elders in Action. She supports arts in school by her liaison role to the Regional Arts and Culture Coalition (RACC) and participation with the Right Brain Initiative. Oregon continues to be one of the hungriest states in the nation. Commissioner Shiprack recognizes the importance of a thriving regional food system to access local produce, create local jobs and increase the health and quality of life for the community. She will continue to provide leadership on the Multnomah Food Initiative, the Food Action Plan and the Institutional Food Buyers' Alliance. Commissioner Shiprack seeks and invites input from her district and is dedicated to community-building. The East Portland Action Plan has sparked a renaissance of community empowerment and has the support and advocacy of Commissioner Shiprack.
