Jackie Manz Candidate Statement Page 2 Multnomah
County

I stand for neighborhoods. I stand for thoughtful fiscal conservancy to sustain our City for current and future citizens. I stand for sensible downtown and southwest development. I stand for a thriving business environment. I stand for personal property rights and believe that every property owner should be treated equally and with respect. I stand with our schools and support creative City and school partnerships. I stand for the citizens of Lake Oswego.

Adrienne Brockman

Our community has many sectors which must work together to maintain this wonderful city that I have enjoyed for 66 years. Jackie served as the chairperson of her neighborhood association for eight years and understands the importance of maintaining the character of our neighborhoods. She understands the importance of supporting our merchants and the importance of open space. Having served on the budget committee she also understands the City's finances and the importance of having a viable community. She is a good listener and I am supporting her with enthusiasm. - Adrienne Brockman

Donald Mattersdorff

Jackie Manz has been a leader in Lake Oswego for many years. She was a leader in our schools. She was chair of the Hallinan Heights Neighborhood Association, where she still plays an important role, and she now sits on the Lake Oswego Budget Committee. She has many strong qualities, but the strongest is that she listens to the concerns of her neighbors and works hard to help them. She is highly community oriented. Jackie will tackle difficult tasks, working to accomplish them with diplomatic skill. She has spent many years making Hallinan a better place, and we are certain that she will do the same for Lake Oswego. - Donald Mattersdorff
