

Division: Public Health

Program Characteristics:

Program Description

Parent Child Family Health (PCFH) supports families via home visits and case management. These services work to address the needs of pregnant and parenting families. Goals include promoting healthy pregnancy and postpartum periods, and mental health and wellness. Through these goals, PCFH prevents infant deaths, preterm births, and child abuse/neglect.

Multnomah Early Childhood Program (MECP) provides support for families with children who have special health needs. David Douglas School District and the Preschool for All program contract with the Multnomah Early Childhood Program to provide these services in the classroom setting and other community settings.

Families who participate in MECP services are:

- More likely to participate in early childhood education programs;
- More likely to experience a teacher better trained to support children with special needs;
- More likely to experience support in implementing their Individualized Family Service Plan;
- More likely to be connected with mental health support services;
- More likely to be prepared for Kindergarten.

Equity Statement

Support before birth and in early childhood improves health across the lifespan. PCFH offers all families in Multnomah County some level of support during this time. MECP provides support to families experiencing limited access to early learning for children with special needs. MECP works with preschools and other community settings to ensure all children can be successful in school and ready to learn. This approach improves the overall health of Multnomah County.
