INTEGRITY, LEADERSHIP, STUDENTS FIRST

“Stephen has a strong track record of galvanizing communities around a vision. I know he will help MESD strengthen student outcomes for those who most need the support!” - Oregon State Representative Alissa Keny-Guyer

MESD serves our most vulnerable students from eight Multnomah County school districts and beyond. They deserve our best service, belief, and support.

As an advocate for people with disabilities, a nonprofit executive, and an experienced community leader, I'm running for MESD Position 6 to...

- I am committed to equity and inclusion
- I believe a clear strategic plan for MESD is needed to effectively steward public resources

This is a transformative moment for MESD, with board and staff leadership shifts creating an extraordinary opportunity for greater impact and innovation.

I believe I can be a positive leader for change in MESD's work.

“Stephen brings a passion and committed voice for creativity, strategic thinking, and true equity to an institution sorely in need of just such qualities.” - Sheyla Hirshon, parent advocate
