

Eligibility Requirements

- You must be a homeless individual as defined by the U.S. Dept. of Labor
- A homeless person is:
- Persons who lack a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence;
- Persons living in supervised public or privately operated shelter designed to provide temporary living arrangements;
- An individual who resided in a shelter or place not meant for human habitation and who is exiting an institution where he or she temporarily resided; and
- Persons with a primary nighttime residence that is a public or private place not designed for or ordinarily used as a regular sleeping accommodation for human beings;
- An individual or family who will imminently lose their housing, can identify no subsequent residence, and which lacks the resources or support networks needed to obtain other permanent housing.
- Unaccompanied youth and homeless families with children and youth defined as homeless under other Federal statutes who have experienced a long term period without living independently in permanent housing;
- Have experienced persistent instability as measured by frequent moves over such period; and can be expected to continue in such status for an extended period of time because of chronic disabilities, chronic physical health or mental health conditions, substance addiction, histories of domestic violence or childhood abuse, the presence of a child or youth with a disability, or multiple barriers to employment.
- You must be a veteran who served in the active U.S military and were honorably discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable.
- You must be motivated and willing to search for work and to connect to the necessary benefits.
- You must be willing to complete an employment preparation assessment card and provide your VA status, housing, age, gender, and other personal information.

Homeless Veterans' Reintegration Program

Let us help you gain the skills and experience you need to return to the workforce.

The Homeless Veterans Reintegration Program (HVRP) was established by the Department of Labor to help homeless veterans get back on their feet by assisting them in their efforts to return to work.

Whether you served in the Vietnam War, the Gulf War, or the current conflict in Iraq, this employment training and placement program is for the homeless veterans who want to be gainfully employed in their communities

Easter Seals will help with:

Individualized support based on specific needs.

Employment support services such as job related equipment, clothing, transportation, food or child care.

Training and remedial education, job preparation services, trade certification and licensing assistance.

Assistance finding shelter, transitional, and permanent housing.

Referral for other services or treatments.

Mission

Easter Seals Oregon provides exceptional services to ensure that children and adults living with disabilities or special needs and their families have equal opportunities to live, learn, work and play in their communities.

Vision

Believing that all people should enjoy access, opportunities and independence,

Easter Seals Oregon will annually demonstrate a measurable increase in services to people with disabilities or special needs.

Values

Integrity	People Focused
Independence	Respect
Shared Purpose	Excellence
