

Division: Adult Services Division

Program Characteristics:*Program Description

Custody and Release Services (CRS) provides services to adults in custody. Pre-adjudication services include release eligibility determination and pre-sentence investigations. Post-adjudication services include post-prison hearings, service of sanctions and re-entry coordination. The unit includes the following functions:

- Recognizance (Recog) is a 24/7 program housed at the Multnomah County Detention Center that applies the current Presiding Judge Order (PJO) for pretrial release eligibility as well as the public safety assessment (PSAs) to determine the pretrial monitoring level. Recog serves as a 24-hour liaison between law enforcement agencies and Parole-Probation Officers, coordinating the process for holding individuals for probation and post-prison violations.
- Pre-Sentence Investigations compiles case facts, conducts interviews with defendants and/or victims, and prepares court ordered reports to inform court sentencing decisions.
- Hearings and Notice of Rights Officers complete Local Control post-prison hearings, notice of rights, revocations and sanctions per Oregon Administrative Rule, meeting with individuals in jail to provide their notice of rights and impose the sanction for violations of conditions of supervision.

Equity Statement

The program supports equity through the centralized application of the presiding judge order, pre-adjudication, and post-adjudication violation review process. This ensures consistent due process and fair investigations for individuals awaiting trial, and under supervision. The model aims to reduce systemic disparities by standardizing pretrial release eligibility and hearings and prioritizing non-custodial interventions.
