Executive Summary

The Violation Hearings unit is instrumental in holding justice-involved adults accountable by providing fair and objective investigations and parole hearings, incarceration when appropriate and actively supervising justice-involved adults. Through collaboration with the Multnomah County Sheriff's Office, the Oregon State Board of Parole, treatment providers, and the community, this unit provides effective interventions and helps to ensure efficient operations of the local justice system.

Program Summary

If during supervision, a parole-probation officer (PPO) determines that a justice-involved adult has violated parole conditions, the PPO submits required written documents and a violation hearing is arranged through the Hearings unit. Hearings Officers (HO) conduct local parole hearings and determine consequences for the adults found in violation of supervision. HOs are able to order jail releases, recommend revocations of adults and/or make other recommendations that are consistent with evidence-based practices. In addition, the unit provides support within the Justice Center to field PPO's for the purposes of testimony and DCJ representation on probation violation matters before the court.
