

Division: Adult Services Division

Program Characteristics:

Program Description

The Generic Field Supervision Unit provides probation and post-prison supervision, sanctions and services in line with Oregon Administrative Rule and Oregon Revised Statute for those that do not meet criteria for a specialized unit. This unit adheres to evidence-based risk/needs assessments to determine supervision levels and prioritize resources for justice involved adults on supervision. Parole-Probation Officers (PPOs) reinforce law-abiding behavior and link justice-involved individuals to treatment, employment and other services. Supervision is conducted through case management strategies (home and office visits, contacts with family, collaboration with system partners). Supervision targets criminogenic needs (including skill building for high risk individuals) and referrals to trauma-informed, responsive treatments and opportunities.

The Generic Unit also provides responsive supervision including:

- The Reduced Supervision caseload that takes care not to bring individuals who are low risk deeper into the criminal justice system, provides minimal supervision, and encourages increased self-sufficiency
- House Bill 4002 drug enforcement misdemeanor (DEM) individuals, aimed at providing treatment and resources to those with substance use disorders

Equity Statement

The program supports equity by applying an evidence-based supervision model based on risk, need and responsivity that allows for adaptability based on individual client needs, while also providing culturally responsive support. The unit focuses resources on the highest risk individuals to reduce recidivism, and coordinates response on DEM cases that aims to keep these cases out of the criminal justice system and support client outcomes.
