Executive Summary

Electronic Monitoring (EM) allows staff to monitor the activities of pre- and post-adjudicated individuals in the community through house arrest, curfew monitoring, alcohol consumption monitoring, or the monitoring of an individual's movement in the community. Utilizing EM and Global Positioning Software (GPS) technology to minimize the movements of justice involved adults within the community has proven to be a reliable, cost-effective way to sanction individuals and reinforce public safety and the safety of victims.

Program Summary

EM technologies are useful case management tools that allow for a broader range of responses to non-conformance and an alternative to more expensive incarceration during pre-adjudication and post-conviction. EM allows Parole/Probation Officers (PPO) to know where high risk justice involved adults are located at any given time. This alternative sanction expands supervision sentencing options for judges and creates cost-effective client management by having the individual pay a portion of the equipment costs (based upon subsidy eligibility). Current data indicate most defendants and justice involved adults on EM complete their obligation successfully. Last year, DCJ clients were on EM instead of using 54,789 jail bed days.

This use of EM technology further allows an individual the ability to maintain employment and continue participation in treatment groups. The EM Program is staffed by Correction Technicians (CTs) and provides case management assistance to PPOs by installing the bracelets, monitoring compliance, responding to program violations and communicating violations to PPOs, and maintaining an EM database.

The EM program is a collaborative, systems-oriented project that works closely with PPOs Pretrial Supervision Program staff who in turn work with the Courts, the Oregon Board of Parole and Post Prison Supervision and the District Attorney's Office to enhance the success of individuals placed on community supervision.
