Executive Summary

The Reduced Supervision Team (RST) model takes care not to bring justice involved adults who are low risk deeper into the criminal justice system, provides minimal supervision and encourages increased self-sufficiency. Approximately 3000 adults are supervised by RST annually. The Monitored Misdemeanor Program (MMP) promotes public safety by monitoring and supervising justice involved adults on bench probation who have been convicted of Driving Under the Influence of Intoxicants (DUII). MMP is instrumental in holding bench probation clients accountable.

Program Summary

Justice involved adults are assessed utilizing risk tools. Those who have the lowest risk to re-offend are routed to RST for supervision. Research shows that providing intense supervision to lower risk individuals is detrimental and causes more harm (Lowenkamp, Latessa, & Holsinger, 2006).

RST is a formal probation/parole/post-prison program that tracks the individual's supervision to completion. The individual is not required to see a Parole-Probation Officer (PPO) but must report any changes in address or employment, any law enforcement contact, and must receive permission to travel outside of Oregon. RST monitors new criminal activity and responds with an array of sanctions or redirection, which can include a caseload transfer for more intensive supervision, jail/revocation, electronic monitoring and/or community service.

The Monitored Misdemeanor Program (MMP) provides a service to the courts by monitoring police contacts with DUII clients who are placed on bench probation. The MMP program monitors individuals who have failed to successfully complete the DUII Diversion program or are otherwise ineligible for diversion. Fifteen percent of these individuals are high risk multiple DUII clients participating in the DUII Intensive Supervision Program.

Staff monitor and supervise individuals by tracking each case for police contact, new criminal activity and compliance to conditions set by the Court. This program's ability to monitor the activities of individuals allows the courts to effectively supervise these cases and address violations in a timely manner.
