Executive Summary

Community Interface Services (CIS) seeks to strengthen and improve the multi-disciplinary community connections through initiatives and collaborations with youth and family-serving systems and partners. The goal is to improve services to youth and families, prevent involvement in the juvenile justice system, restore victims, and reduce recidivism.

Program Description

Community Interface Services (CIS) is a longstanding program within the Juvenile Services Division aimed at reducing reliance on juvenile detention and interrupting harm to the community from systemic and institutional inequities. The model consists of the following:

Restorative Justice Coordinator - Identifies and implements strategies for increasing restorative responses and opportunities for youth in the juvenile justice system as well as those at risk of delinquency and law enforcement contact. Serves as a liaison between JSD and school districts to improve school connection for youth involved in the juvenile justice system. JSD also contracts with a community non-profit provider to facilitate restorative dialogues.

Hands of Wonder Program Coordinator - Plans, administers, and leads the Hands of Wonder program that includes the garden program as well as other restorative justice and workforce development efforts.

Intervention and Resource Connection Specialists - Juvenile Court Counselors who serve as law enforcement liaisons by helping to prevent delinquency, reduce truancy, make referrals to needed services, and improve positive school outcomes. These positions work to intervene prior to formal system involvement and to reduce racial and ethnic disparities.

Diversion Juvenile Court Counselors - Youth age 12 and older who commit low-level delinquent acts are assessed and held accountable via contracts called Formal Accountability Agreements (FAA), instead of being charged, adjudicated, and placed on formal probation. FAA conditions may include community service, restitution, a letter of responsibility, school attendance, and/or treatment services. Diversion youth who do not comply with agreements or who continue to demonstrate unsafe, illegal behavior can be taken to court and placed on formal probation.

Community Interface Services Office Assistant - Provides administrative and clerical support to the CIS Unit.
