Executive Summary

Funding from the American Rescue Plan (ARP) will increase our capacity to provide short and long-term housing/shelter for high risk adults with special needs using several community contracted agencies. Providing housing to justice-involved individuals (JIIs) is cost-effective and circumvents JIIs from entering the homeless service delivery system. This offer was funded in FY 2022 and due to continued need, is being requested again for FY 2023.

Program Summary

The Assessment and Referral Center (ARC) Transition Services actively works to build partnerships with community-based services and organizations, as well as other Multnomah County departments, specifically Corrections Health, to provide the continuum of care that is needed for recently released individuals, including housing, health assessments, treatment access, case coordination and engagement. The ARC facilitates housing placements for JIIs who are released from state and local custody and identified at risk of homelessness. JIIs released from institutions impacted by COVID-19, as well as JIIs who cannot reside with family members who are deemed high risk for COVID-19 are screened and placed in appropriate housing including those that need to be placed in 14-day quarantine prior to transitional and long-term housing.

This program offer funds transitional beds at various locations throughout Multnomah County. This includes beds (as needed) for clients transitioning to the medical shelter program from institutions impacted by COVID-19 who need a unit specific for their special needs, for example elevator and bathrooms that accommodate individuals with mobility issues. ARC also provides rent assistance and support (phones and phone cards) to move clients from transitional housing to long-term housing in a timely manner.
