BALLOT MEASURE B
BALLOT TITLE
COMMISSIONERS RUNNING FOR CHAIR MIDTERM

Caption: Amends charter, commissioners may run for Chair midterm without resigning.

Question: Should charter be amended to allow commissioners to run for Chair mid-term without resigning their current elected office?

Summary: The current Charter provides that if an elected official files to run for another elective office midterm they effectively resign their office on the date they file for another office. The only exception occurs in the last year of an elective term. Filing for another office in the last year of an elective term does not constitute resignation. The proposed amendment allows a county commissioner to run for county chair midterm without resigning their current elected office, and clearly specifies that no other elected official may run for another elective office midterm without resigning.

A county commissioner running for an elected office midterm other than the chair's office will remain subject to the resignation provision. Similarly, the chair, auditor, and sheriff – the three other elected officials in the county – must resign their office if they run for another elective office midterm, unless they do so in the last year of their elective term.
