Thursday and Friday, February 16 – 17, 2017

JUSTICE REINVESTMENT SUMMIT

The Justice Reinvestment Summit is an opportunity for criminal justice stakeholders to hear from local and national experts about successful and innovative strategies in criminal justice. This year's Summit will focus on a wide range of programs and solutions that address the four goals of justice reinvestment, including the intersection of mental health and criminal justice, trauma informed approaches, reentry and diversion programs, and more.

Who Should Attend?

- Public Safety Ways and Means Committee members
- Oregon State Legislators
- Criminal justice stakeholders
- Local Public Safety Coordinating Council members
- Other public safety professionals

WHAT WORKS IN PUBLIC SAFETY

The 2017 What Works conference explores drug laws and policies and ponders both criminal and public health responses to addiction. On the morning of Friday, February 17th, local and national experts will present the science of drug addiction, facts on drug use, and cutting-edge laws and policies in response to addiction and drug crimes. The conference will be a joint meeting of the Judiciary and Health Care committees and is also open to all legislators, policy-makers, criminal justice leaders and public safety professionals.
