Executive Summary

Law Enforcement Assisted Diversion (LEAD) is a new innovative pilot program developed to address low-level drug street crime in downtown Portland. The goal of LEAD is to improve community health and safety by using a harm reduction and assertive engagement model and coordinating with law enforcement.

Program Summary

Law Enforcement Assisted Diversion (LEAD) is a pre-booking diversion program that allows police officers to redirect lowlevel offenders engaged in drug activity to community-based services instead of jail and prosecution. This program focuses on low-level misdemeanor and felony drug possession crimes. LEAD is modeled after a similar program by the same name in Seattle, WA. The Seattle program has been thoroughly evaluated and found to reduce crime (and associated costs) and improve participant outcomes like employment, housing, and health. LEAD has also been identified as an effective strategy to reduce racial/ethnic disparities as individuals of color navigate between Substance Use Disorder (SUD) problems and legal involvement.

This diversion program is based on the collaboration between arresting officers with the Portland Police Bureau and Community-based case managers. The goal is to engage individuals during pre-arrest in efforts to provide support and resources for basis needs and SUD treatment versus coming into the criminal justice system.

LEAD eligibility is determined by the Portland Police Bureau Street Crimes Unit and Bicycle patrols in the downtown neighborhood of the City of Portland. There may be additional law enforcement assistance/referral with the TriMet Police Patrol, Multnomah County Sheriff's Office as well. Eligible individuals will then be connected with a LEAD intensive case manager. Case managers, based at a community provider will then be responsible for brokering all services needed or requested by eligible individuals. All determining factors, criteria for LEAD eligibility, data collection criteria, etc. are provided by the policy team for LEAD and adjusted as needed to adhere to the policy.
