Executive Summary

The Domestic Violence (DV) unit collaborates with police, District Attorney's Office, courts and treatment agencies to hold justice involved adults accountable and promote individual change. Each year, this program supervises over 1,000 adults convicted of misdemeanor and felony level offenses. In addition, the DV unit works closely with victims to empower them to make changes that improve their lives as well as the lives of their families. Over the past year, nearly nine out of ten individuals supervised by the DV unit have not committed a new misdemeanor or felony.

Program Summary

The DV unit strives to end the cycle of violence by holding individuals accountable for their actions and giving them the opportunity to make long-term positive changes by engaging in appropriate counseling groups (batterer intervention, mental health, etc.). In addition to working with individuals to address behavior change, Parole-Probation Officers (PPO) in the DV unit work closely with victims to develop safety plans that help empower them to break the cycle of domestic violence. DV PPOs regularly attend court to ensure a systematic approach is being utilized in victim safety and accountability of the individual on supervision.

Reducing domestic violence is a priority for Multnomah County. This program increases public safety by holding high risk individuals accountable, promoting victim safety and building strong collaborative efforts with community partners. This program utilizes evidence-based practices including specialized assessment tools and cognitive behavioral intervention programming that is proven to reduce intimate partner violence. Case management strategies provide individuals the opportunity to change by addressing factors which research has shown to reduce criminal behavior (Andrews 1994).

The Domestic Violence Deferred Sentencing Program (DSP) and batterer intervention services appear in Program Offer 50036.
