Executive Summary

The Turn Self In (TSI) program limits the overutilization of jail beds for offenders who the court deems eligible to serve their sentence on weekend days only. This program allows offenders to maintain their employment and/or other family and life obligations within the community, while being held accountable for their criminal convictions. The TSI program continues to support the goal of MCSO to find innovative, fiscally responsible alternatives to incarceration.

Program Summary

The weekend TSI program, operated at the Courthouse Jail Holding area, provides the courts a sentencing alternative which holds offenders accountable without requiring the use of traditional jail beds. Eligible offenders must meet criteria which minimizes the overall cost of services of incarceration, including; 24/7 medical, overnight stays, and staffing ratios associated with traditional jail beds.

This sentencing option averages 30 to 40 offenders each weekend day. The success of this program is due in large part to its ability to meet the collective needs of the court, Multnomah County, and the offenders. The TSI sentencing program provides opportunities for sentenced offenders to maintain employment, family obligations, and pro-social activities, which support a successful reentry into the community while ensuring judgments of the courts are fulfilled.

In conjunction with the MCSO Programs Unit, offenders sentenced to the weekend TSI program are afforded the opportunity to participate in AA and/or NA meetings in an effort to treat the underlying addiction issues that may have contributed to their criminal behavior, as part of MCSO's commitment to Justice Reinvestment.

Without the TSI program, judges would have limited options outside of utilizing a jail bed when a decision has been made that an offender must serve time in custody. The successful attendance and completion rates of those given sentences to the TSI program indicate the need for this valuable alternative in the criminal justice system in Multnomah County.

MCSO continues to ensure its commitment to exemplary service to everyone in the community by providing alternatives to incarceration that best meet the expectations of both the court, victims, and the community, as well as the needs of the offender.
