Executive Summary

The Civil Unit provides enforcement services for the civil and probate court system. Notice and enforcement actions originate through the civil, probate, and family courts and are processed through the delivery and services conducted by the Civil Unit. Civil enforcement actions are statutorily mandated to the Sheriff.

Program Summary

The Civil Unit delivers all court action documents through written notification to parties of a pending action. Through the Civil Unit, court orders to seize and sell property, satisfy landlord/tenant actions, and enforce child custody disputes are conducted in an objective, fair, and equitable manner in compliance with Oregon statutes and rules on civil procedure.

Through probate court, families, police officers, and other interested parties seek involuntary commitment for allegedly mentally ill persons suffering from episodes so debilitating that they are a danger to themselves or others. The Civil Unit deputy locates, transports, and provides security for the person and the court.

When domestic violence threatens the family unit, deputies in the Civil Unit serve domestic violence restraining orders to protect family members from violence and aggressive behavior.

Civil Unit deputies experience incidents of physical resistance while performing their duties. In particular, evictions may involve individuals who barricade themselves requiring a substantial dedication of resources and time. Often times, these incidents require additional response to gain entry into the residence to execute the eviction, while also ensuring the safety of nearby citizens. Persons subject to the court's orders have threatened harm to uniformed staff, displayed firearms, discharged firearms, and fortified apartments and homes to prevent the court action.

A balanced public safety system provides citizens the ability and right to address their grievances in a safe, fair, and equitable manner, and the Civil Unit ensures that this mandated service is performed effectively to meet the needs of the court and the community.
