Program Characteristics: Out of Target

Executive Summary

The goal of the In-Jail Human Trafficking Program is to gather intelligence and utilize intervention methodology relating to human trafficking as it is proliferated among individuals in custody. This program will establish a screening instrument to identify at-risk pretrial and sentenced adults in custody. This program is aimed towards at-risk individuals who are in custody within the County correctional facilities. The sergeant assigned to this program will assist vulnerable individuals by connecting them with in-jail programs, intervention, and transition services with core service providers.

Program Description

Human Trafficking is a crime that involves exploiting a person for labor, services or commercial sex. This crime even persists in the County jails. At-risk adults in custody are identified as a commodity and once out of custody, may be passed to persons involved in crimes such as coercion, prostitution, promoting prostitution, sexual abuse, luring and purchasing of a minor, and contributing to the delinquency of a minor. The Corrections Sergeant assigned to this program will continue to develop, collect, analyze, organize, and disseminate intelligence information targeting human trafficking activities inside the jails. The Corrections Sergeant shares information with various social service and task force partners on potential perpetrators, maintains a database for tracking information, and uses a screening instrument to quickly identify vulnerable individuals, including at-risk adults in custody.

Facilitated by the Corrections Sergeant, trafficking victims in-custody are connected with in-jail programs and intervention/transition services with contracted non-government core service providers, including shelter services, mental health and substance use services/treatment, mentorship, case management, and confidential advocacy. The population served by this program are victims and families of sex trafficking. The overall goal is keeping the victims safe from future physical trauma while in custody and mitigating the impacts of their emotional trauma by connecting them with services. Individuals suspected or convicted of trafficking are identified and information may be used in further investigations. Trafficking purchasers are also being documented to provide additional intelligence on Human Trafficking crimes. The Corrections Sergeant has been working with volunteer interns; mentoring potential criminal justice majors and having them assist with intelligence data entry and research. Interns have provided over 9,000 volunteer hours the last three fiscal years. The Corrections Sergeant also presents at local, regional and national law enforcement nonprofit organizations and public events. These presentations include Healthy Boundaries in Electronic Communications and Human Trafficking for Law Enforcement and Corrections. Increasing the knowledge base of human trafficking and providing a coordinated, wrap around service approach to assist vulnerable members of the community is key to addressing this serious crime.
