Program Description

The Reynolds District School Resource Deputies (SRD) are the liaison between schools, law enforcement, and social services. SRDs work toward offering resources to reduce risk to children and their families and to enhance educational opportunities by addressing the various barriers children and families may encounter. SRDs also perform outreach to vulnerable and underrepresented students and their families, and are often the first necessary step toward intervention and referral. In addition to outreach, SRDs ensure frontline emergency response if a violent, active threat is present, provide criminal investigative services including assisting with threat assessments when necessary, and intervene in dire situations, including child abuse and exploitation. SRDs not only become a stabilizing influence for youth, but in many cases SRDs act as role models promoting positive relationships for those they encounter daily. Participating in daily and after school activities, SRDs have the opportunity to engage with students and families in a fun, less formal environment that strengthens relationships.

Also, the SRDs, as part of the Community Partnership Unit, participated in a 12-week pilot training project developed in collaboration with the Sheriff’s Office Equity and Inclusion Manager. This training was aimed at bringing awareness and understanding on topics including active listening, advanced communications, trauma informed understanding, cultural competency and anti-racism. The training provided SRDs with the skills and tools necessary to more effectively connect with and represent all community members as the program strives to provide exemplary, innovative and inclusive policing services.

- The School Resource Deputy Program:
- Builds relationships between schools, law enforcement, and social services and programs
 - Provide outreach to students
 - Responds to and investigates active threats in a school setting
