David Douglas School Board, Position #6 2016-Present

My two older sisters and I were raised in the Oakland, California area by our mother, a political refugee of Perú during Sendero Luminoso's attempted violent coup. We lived in poverty during our childhood as our mother fled domestic violence. Our poverty required that I begin working and cleaning houses at age 11 with my grandfather who was a day laborer, and I always had a strong sense of accomplishment after the planning, designing, and hard work that goes into manual labor. Unfortunately, not everyone feels that same sense of accomplishment or satisfaction after a hard day's work. I am seeking to continue serving in Position 6 on the David Douglas school board because hard working families deserve hard working representatives, and just like I worked hard building decks and painting houses, I will continue to work hard advocating for student and worker rights, economic stability, and equitable education opportunities for all Oregonians. As the first and only person of color to ever serve on the DDSB, these commitments have also been demonstrated through my civic leadership, in addition to my professional political experience.

I am proud to have the following endorsements:

Christine Larson, David Douglas School Board
State Representative Diego Hernandez
Melissa Reeves, OSEA Chapter 40 President
NARAL Pro-Choice PAC
Working Families Party
Democratic Party of Oregon's Latino Caucus
