Executive Summary

The Communications Office is the bridge that connects people in Multnomah County to their government. The Office provides accurate, timely and responsive information on county services, employees and initiatives. Staff chronicle, curate and disseminate the work of the Board of County Commissioners and county departments. The Communications Office enables citizens to express their needs and ideas by conducting public engagement, providing access to public records and working effectively with media.

Program Summary

The Communications Office creates a central, coordinated voice that builds public trust through professionalism, timeliness and transparency. Through research, writing, photography, video and audio recordings, and culturally-specific approaches, staff create accessible materials to engage and inform the public. They operate as a virtual news outlet on county developments, covering board meetings, public events and profiling employees and clients. Staff create content and/or maintain 18 websites and the County's main social media accounts (Facebook, Twitter, etc.). The Office responds to all media and public records requests. They provide emergency health and safety communications for the public and employees 24/7. They develop position statements, op-eds, news releases, board presentations and legislative testimony. Using strategic communications, the Communications staff proactively anticipate issues and advise elected and department leaders and staff on critical concerns. They provide crisis communications for all departments, develop public education campaigns and convene public meetings. They promote employee expertise and skill through media training and help create a cohesive organization through the weekly Wednesday Wire newsletter sent to all county staff. With more than 100 languages spoken by Multnomah County residents, translation services are vital to ensure the delivery of services, care, and emergency information. Materials are developed specific to audiences and communities to promote understanding, assure equity and leverage culturally specific media.

Key objectives for 2018:

-Increase the awareness of, and access to, county services through increased output, branding, and coordinated countywide content and outreach.

-Reach underserved communities by increasing materials, outreach and media relations to those populations.

-Protect and strengthen the integrity of government and governing by creating accurate, timely news of record.

-Increase professionalism and trust through style and production standards and media training for staff and leadership.

-Promote Multnomah County's' unique role as a regional and statewide government leader through relations with partner agencies.

-Bring departments' communications professionals together to share best practices and leverage communications on county-wide initiatives.

Significant Program Changes

Last Year this program was: FY 2017: 10007 Communications Office

The offer includes a new communications coordinator position to manage communications for the new Joint Office of Homeless Services and A Home for Everyone. This is a significant portfolio that includes the work of the Joint Office, and issues around housing, homeless services, emergency shelter and the extensive non-profit provider partnership that delivers shelter, employment and support services. The 2018 offer also includes increasing a .5 graphic designer and a .5 photographer each to full-time. Photos and graphic design are central pillars of all County Communications web and print content. These images appear across county websites, departments, print and web materials, to communicate visually. They are routinely used by all media outlets.
