

Do you need a comfortable place to be during the power outage?

The Mead Building in Downtown Portland is open for you.

Where

Mead Building, Basement
421 SW 5th Street
Portland, OR 97204

What to expect

A reception area open to the public with food, water, and support services like:

- Someone to talk to in a time of stress
- Help with applying for public benefits or medicine needs
- Help securing transportation

Who

The reception area is open to all people of all ages and abilities.

Hours

Open until 9pm on Tuesday, May 23, 2017

Contact

For more information contact:

- The Aging and Disability Resource connection Helpline at 503.988.3646
- If you are feeling overwhelmed by the incident the Mental Health Crisis Line is also available: 800-716-9769

Please contact Pacific Power about questions related to the availability of electricity.

Food and Water
Available

All Ages and Abilities
Welcome

Air Conditioned Spaces

Someone to talk to about benefits and support