

TRAFFICKING INDICATORS

No one specific indicator signals someone is in 'the life', but the combination of the indicators could be due to involvement.

- History of physical/sexual violence
- Chronic runaway/homeless youth
- Multiple systems involvement (e.g. law enforcement, DHS, JDH, mental health)
- Inconsistent amounts of cash or possessions compared with known income
- Inconsistent or unclear stories
- Fear, anxiety, or depression
- Relationship with adults or older men
- Lack of disclosure concerning whereabouts
- Use of lingo or slang
- Not in control of their money
- Reluctance to explain tattoo or marking
- Substance use
- Frequent sexually transmitted diseases or pregnancies
- Multiple cell phones

SEX TRAFFICKING SERVICES

TRAINING & PARTNERSHIPS

SERVICES

This pamphlet has government funded sex trafficking resources, though this list is not comprehensive to all services available within our collaborative.

Trainings

No one entity can do this alone. Wraparound care is essential to the work we do for those who have been sex trafficked. We recognize the importance of having strong collaboration and quality training for everyone.

Here is a list of the types of training our agencies provide:

1. What is Sex Trafficking? (101) 2. Survivor identification in various agencies:

- Schools
- Law enforcement
- Medical Facilities
- Domestic violence shelters and programs
- Homeless and runaway youth services
- Mental Health
- Airports
- Judges
- CASAs
- Faith-based communities
- Entities which may come in contact with survivors

3. Survivor Support:

- Advocacy
- Shelter
- Law enforcement

To request a training, fill out the Training Request Weform at <http://bit.ly/trainingwebform>
