

Multnomah County is looking for members to serve on the

Oregon Historical Society Levy Oversight Committee

Are you passionate about history or storytelling?
Dedicated to equity-driven decision making?

The Levy Oversight Committee will ensure accountability for the expenditure of the Oregon Historical Society levy funds approved by voters, and shall advise and support the Oregon Historical Society in ensuring that its board, partnerships, staff, exhibits and programs proactively represent Multnomah County's diverse communities. Members must live in Multnomah County and will be representative of Multnomah County's diverse communities.

Applications should be submitted by 9 a.m. on Friday, Sept. 1, 2017 for consideration with first review. Applications will be reviewed thereafter on a rolling basis as needed.

Find more information on how to apply visit multco.us/ohsloc

Questions?

Contact Anna Marie Allen by email at anna.marie.allen@multco.us, or by phone at 503-988-9841.

College students protesting the world arms race marching in the Montavilla neighborhood on their way from Kelly Butte to downtown Portland, circa 1961. (OHS bb011122)

THE OREGON
HISTORICAL SOCIETY
FOUNDED 1898