Introductions and Announcements

Antoinette Edwards opened the meeting and introductions were made.

PPB's James Dakin announced due to an increase in shootings in November, PPB conducted a focused mission where 40 people were arrested and 10 guns were seized. Shootings drastically declined in December.

Eric Zimmerman, MCDA, announced federal funding for witness support across Oregon.

Mary Geelan announced the court will have a 3rd judicial listening session on Thursday, January 12th.

Brian Detman announced there will be a presentation by Judge Nan Waller about JDAI at Donald E Long on January 12th at noon.

Discuss Funding Request Priorities

Staffing: Mary Geelan has been coordinating the gang assessment process on a part-time basis and will continue until February 2017. There may be an OJJDP grant opportunity for a coordinator. Until then, LPSCC's Lily Yamamoto will be able to contribute some time for coordination through June. The February 13th LPSCC meeting will feature the Gang Assessment Implementation Plan and there will be asks for agency resources.

The draft of the Multnomah County Gang Assessment Implementation Plan Activity Overview was reviewed and discussed with a focus on funding needs.

Antoinette Edwards wants to prioritize employment. Prior to the February LPSCC meeting, Antoinette will talk with Commissioner Smith about expanding Summer Works in the budget.

Suzanne Hayden noted there might be grants through the US Attorney executive office.

There was discussion about adding funding for mentors in addition to funding infrastructure to support them.

The funding priorities might be presented as a two or three phase process.

Review Lead Organizations for Activities

The lead organizations for activities were reviewed and confirmed.

Review Objectives

There was not time to review objectives. Mary asked the group to review in the next week and a half.

Mary will send out a final draft of the plan for group input.

The meeting was adjourned.
