Introductions, Announcements, and Approval of Minutes

The November minutes were approved.

Introductions were made.

Announcements:

- Robin Sells is now the chief of the Gresham Police Department.
- Commissioner Diane McKeel was presented with a plaque for her time on the LPSCC Executive Committee.

US Attorney's Smart Suite

US Attorney Assistant Suzanne Hayden gave an update on the District of Oregon US Attorney's Smart Suite. Principles include prioritized prosecutions, reform sentencing, alternatives to incarceration, improve reentry, and increasing resources to violence prevention. Efforts include crime prevention community outreach, youth outreach, building partnerships, and enhancing involvement in reentry efforts.

Racial & Ethnic Disparities in the Multnomah County Criminal Justice System

As part of the FY 17 budget note, LPSCC will report on the Racial & Ethnic Disparities in the county criminal justice system. The Board of County Commissioners will be briefed on December 13th.

Amanda Lamb, LPSCC Analyst, presented the purpose of the dashboard tool, the data sources, race data, methodology, interpreting results, and measurements. The dashboard was shown.

Feedback

- DA case “Acceptance” should be changed to “charged.”

There was discussion about the legality of releasing multi-system data via a dashboard. New agreements addressing the dashboard are needed and will be drafted. It was agreed that the data could be released to the executive committee prior to the board presentation.

Commissioner McKeel wants to see what disparities look like by geographic area.

The meeting was adjourned.
